Quick answer

Minesweeper is a single-player puzzle game wherein the player should search and defuse hidden mines detonating any of them. The main objective of the game is to clear a rectangular board containing bombs or mines without detonating them, by going through all the clues about the number of mines present in each field.

Minesweeper is a single-player puzzle game wherein the player should search and defuse hidden mines detonating any of them. The main objective of the game is to clear a rectangular board containing bombs or mines without detonating them, by going through all the clues about the number of mines present in each field. It is a famous game which only requires your problem-solving and logical skills to solve in the starting level, and pattern recognition and fast reflexes in the advanced and intermediate levels. This great game is available on the computer and also you can play on your phone or tablet.

I have played this game several times and found that this game is really fun to play. You would surely enjoy playing this game without any issues. The interface is really great and not much confusing like other online games. Also, whenever you are trying to open a game, it takes only a few seconds to load the minefield. The game is easy to play and looks clean. The main reason behind the popularity of this game is that it was included with all versions of Windows OS from 3.1 to Windows 7.

Everyone is familiar with this Minesweeper puzzle game as a basic version has been included with the operating system. In this game, you would have a grid of tiles and you need to guess which ones are obscuring bombs. You would get the clue with the safe tiles and you should use your common sense to check where the bombs may be hidden. To win the game, you need to open all those squares which do not contain any mines.

It is an addictive game due to its great features and also works on any platform you want. The best thing about this game is that you really do not need powerful processors and expensive graphics cards to run this game. Nowadays grannies are also playing this wonderful game and finding it fun and addictive.

While playing this game, you only need to use your logical skills to find out where the bombs are placed. Currently, there is nothing new in this game and game remains the same as it has been for years. There are many game users worldwide who are eagerly want to move the game from their computer to their mobile phones, making it convenient to play in the car, during their office break or simply play on the bus while traveling.
