In brief

The best SolarMovies alternatives include Vumoo.To, YesMovies, Putlocker, MoviesJoy, TubiTV, Popcornflix, Hulu, 123Movies, Afdah, and YifyMovies. These platforms offer free streaming of movies and TV shows with features like HD quality, no-registration access, genre filters, and country-wise browsing.

As the world is growing digitally, the care of online streaming has also experienced immense growth. People worldwide are consuming entertainment, and most of them choose online streaming. Seeking entertainment online is easier since you can do that anytime, anywhere, just with a smart device and internet connection. Numerous platforms and websites are available for watching movies, and one such that has gained immense popularity is SolarMovie.

SolarMovie is a popular website for streaming TV shows and movies online. It features a vast collection of content from different genres and offers free usage without any subscription or payment. SolarMovies has a user-friendly interface and easy navigation, and thus it has gathered a large user base.

However, the fact that this website operates through the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted content has stressed several users. As well as SolarMovie is banned by some ISPs and is not available in some regions. As a result, this has led to various alternative websites' emergence.

Here are the 10 best SolarMovie Alternatives that will allow enthusiasts to enjoy an uninterrupted and enjoyable streaming experience. Join us to learn more.

Top 10 Solar Movies Alternatives

1. Vumoo.To

The first on our list is Vumoo.To, a free streaming platform. This online streaming website offers a vast collection of movies, documentaries, and TV series, all in HD quality. The website allows streamers to watch and download their favorite content without registration. Users can also sign up and get a free account to access unlimited movies and TV shows.

Once you sign up, you get to create playlists and receive recommendations depending on your search and viewing history. Vumoo.To is a user-friendly website; however, it lacks organization compared to some of its competitors. Nonetheless, it is still an excellent alternative to SolarMovies and is free to use.

2. YesMovies

YesMovies is a very popular free streaming and downloading platform. The website is known for its huge collection of movies, TV shows, TV series, and documentaries. It is one popular alternative to SolarMovie, all thanks to its offering and user-friendly interface. YesMovies is known for its high-quality videos and a range of films and TV shows.

It features a country-wise movie list, making it easier for users to proceed. Movie enthusiasts can also choose from categories like Action, Adventure, Biography, Drama, Documentaries, Comedy, and Animation. YesMovies allows individuals to watch full-length content without registering.

3. Putlocker

Putlocker is another great alternative for SolarMovies since both websites are pretty similar. It allows free streaming of movies and TV shows. While using Putlocker, users can sort their preferences by HD or non-HD video. It also enables users to choose by TV series and genre, making the selection easier and quicker.

The best part about Putlocker is that individuals can check IMDb reviews before deciding which movie they want to watch. Users can even send a movie request if they don't find it on the website. Or it also allows raising complaints regarding audio, broken videos and links, missing download links, and other such issues. Putlocker's Most Viewed section helps users find the most watched TV show or movie on the website. The best part is users can download videos with subtitles.

4. MoviesJoy

Moviesjoy is a free streaming website and another SolarMovie alternative. It offers an extensive collection of movies and TV shows. Though the website is add-free, it displays occasional advertisements before streaming content. The best part about Moviesjoy is that users can access all movies and shows without registering or buying a subscription.

Moviesjoy allows users to download more than 10,000 movies and TV shows to their devices. The website has multiple filters to help users find the content they want. It is also easy to navigate and excellent for first-time users.

5. TubiTV

TubiTV is a popular video streaming website with a large user base. It is known for its extensive library of TV shows and movies. Streaming enthusiasts can use TubiTV for free on any of their smart devices. The platform allows users to watch shows without signing up. Users can even create a watchlist to restore playback over various devices.

However, the website displays ads while streaming content. But ads don't feel annoying since it has an excellent streaming quality that enriches your viewing experience. Viewers can also choose from well-defined categories, including crime TV, sitcoms, reality show, and TV series. It has classic movies in its collection section. What makes TubiTV popular amongst movie enthusiasts is its sleek and tidy interface. It is also available on Apple App Store and Google Play Store.

6. Popcornflix

Popcornflix is an online streaming platform that boasts a huge collection of movies, TV shows, and viral videos. It is used for streaming free movies online and is one of the finest SolarMovie alternatives. Users can stream any content instantly without creating an account. Popcornflix boasts dedicated sections for Action, Comedy, Drama, Horror, Sci-fi, and the latest HD movies.

Features like these make it easy for users to find movies based on their preferences. This online streaming website is also compatible with Amazon Prime, XBOX gaming consoles, iOS, Android TV, and Apple TV. What's unique about Popcornflix is its ability to create video gifs using the video player. For kids, Popcornflix Kids offer a safer platform with similar features as the original Popcornflix.

7. Hulu

Hulu is one of the most famous American subscription-based streaming services. It is by far the best SolarMovie alternative. Hulu boasts many TV shows, movies, documentaries, and live TV channels. It is popular for its library of content sourced from different mediums. Hulu also produces its original content, which is available on the website.

Individuals can enjoy Castle Rock, The Path, The Mindy Project, and more. Hulu has both ad-supported and ad-free subscriptions. In addition, it also offers access to popular TV channels, including FOX, NBC, ABC, etc. Not just that, but this streaming platform even boasts a huge collection of anime, reality TV shows, and kids' shows.

It is undoubtedly an all-in-one entertainment package for different age groups. Its user-friendly interface, personalized recommendations, and device compatibility contribute to its large user base.

8. 123Movies

123Movies is a popular online streaming website that allows users to watch movies and TV shows for free. The website has a vast collection of movies and TV series that users can browse and watch without signing up or paying a subscription fee. The website's interface is simple and user-friendly, with options to search for movies by genre, year of release, and even IMDb rating.

One of the unique features of 123Movies is the ability to filter movies by country. This feature is useful if you want to stream movies from specific regions. However, the online drawback is that some content on 123Movies may not be legal or can infringe on copyright laws.

9. Afdah

Afdah is another free streaming website that alternates with SolarMovies. Many movies and TV shows have gathered a large user base. Afdah has a user-friendly interface and a curated range of movies and TV series. It allows movie enthusiasts to stream movies and TV shows in high picture and sound quality, which is also free with zero ads.

Afdah boasts a country-wise movie list, making choosing from the vast collection easier. It also boasts a range of categories, including Action, Adventure, Animation, Comedy, Documentary, Drama, etc. Afdah's ad-free streaming experience makes sure its users get uninterrupted entertainment.

10. YifyMovies

The last on our list is Yifymovies. This excellent alternative to SolarMovie offers streamers endless movies and TV series. Its filters (options to sort out), like genres, ratings, and release year, make it easier for viewers to find what they want to watch. Movie posters on the website have ratings, helping viewers decide which movie they want to stream.

While for using YifyMovies, registration/ signing up is not mandatory, users may have to see pop-up ads in between. Overall, Yifymovies is a great choice if you want to watch movies and TV shows for free. The user-friendly interface of this platform makes it a popular choice amongst streamers.

Bottom line

These were the top 10 Best SolarMovie Alternatives. We hope you find a suitable platform to stream online entertainment from the list above. Though all of these platforms are safe to use, checking for their legality and security once before you start streaming is advisable.
