In brief

Quick Ride is a popular carpooling and bike pooling app in India that lets you share rides with verified users starting at just Rs 3 per kilometer.

Quick Ride is one of the best and popular car pooling applications in India founded by Shobhana BN and KNM Rao. It offers a reliable and strong platform to search real-time options for carpooling, ridesharing and also bike pooling to the users. Users can also select rides by going through the route match. The application is really intuitive, the choices are many, and the users are credible.

I have used Quick Ride several times while going to my office and really found it very helpful. It helps users in saving money and time both. If you are sick of heavy traffic and want to get rid of it, then you should try Quick Ride without any second thought in your mind. You would love and appreciate the cheap charges and great services provided by the Quick Ride to their users in India. It is available in all the big metro cities like Delhi, Bangalore, Kochi, Pune, and Chennai. By using Quick Ride, you would get a well maintained, clean and personal car which is far better and comfortable than the poorly managed taxis.

Carpooling is much easier and safer with Quick Ride in India. It helps in reducing the number of vehicles and also plays an important role in decreasing carbon emission. With Quick Ride, you can also share your ride with another ride taker who is going to same destination as yours. It helps in saving your traveling costs for sure.

Here are some of the great features of Quick Ride

- Users can share a car and travel with Secure and Verified Carpool matches. It brings more safety to female users while traveling to their destinations.
- It is not much expensive and affordable ride-sharing app in India. The rides will start at Rs 3 per kilometer.
- Users can track their car with Live Ride Tracking with correct ETA.
- Users can get instant ride confirmation without any wastage of time.
- For a comfortable, convenient pick-up and drop, users can chat with their co-riders by using the Quick Ride app.
- You can redeem your earned Quick Ride points with other redemption partners easily without any hassle.
- Users would have access to Enterprise-level Security Features in the Quick Ride app.
- You can also create carpool groups from the same tech park, residential society, and same company. It is much easier and comfortable to travel with your office colleagues.
- Users can also enable or disable Gender-specific carpool matches for safety purposes.

Conclusion

From my personal experience, I really want to suggest a Quick Ride app to everyone due its great riding services to the users. You would be able to reduce your transport cost easily without any issues. Hiring an auto or taxi is not much cheaper and will charge you more by considering your overall location for sure. With the help of Quick Ride app, you do not have to worry about the higher charges anymore. You would love the great comfort and riding experience for sure.

So, what are you waiting for? Enjoy your first ride right now!
