In brief

Tata Sky is one of the most popular DTH service providers in the Country. They offer one of the most attractive channel packages and offers for its customers, for both existing and new users. In the last ICC Cricket World Cup also, they are offering the Star Sports Cricket Pack for the users at a minimum amount.

With the TRAI's new rule on DTH, the per-channel pricing made a big confusion to the users in selecting the channels and the packages. As a result, each user has different pricing depends on their channel selection. Before recharging users need to contact the customer care in order to confirm pricing and to choose the best package available.
